- (d) Special Meetings. A special meeting of members may be called for any lawful purpose by a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors, by the Chair of the Board of Directors, or by five percent (5%) or more of the voting members of the Corporation in good standing. A special meeting called by any person(s) entitled to call a special meeting (other than the Board of Directors) shall be called by written request, specifying the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted, and submitted to the Chair of the Board of Directors, or the Secretary of the Corporation. The Director or Officer receiving the request shall cause notice to be given promptly to the members entitled to vote, in accordance with Section 4.7(e) of these Bylaws. The notice shall state that a meeting will be held at a special time, date and place fixed by the Board of Directors. The meeting date so fixed by the Board of Directors shall be at least thirty five (35) days, and not more than ninety (90) days, after the date on which the Director or Officer received the request for the special meeting. If the notice is not given within twenty (20) days after the date on which the Director or Officer received the request for the special meeting, then the person or persons who submitted the request for the special meeting may give the notice of the meeting. The Board of Directors and the Officers of the Corporation shall fully cooperate with any such person or persons in providing all information necessary, including a list of all members in good standing as of the Record Date applicable to the special meeting pursuant to the provisions of Section 4.8 of these Bylaws, and in complying with all requirements for notice for a meeting of members as set forth in these Bylaws.

- (i) No business other than the business the general nature of which was set forth in the notice of the special meeting may be transacted at a special meeting.
 - (ii) Nothing in this Section shall be construed as limiting, fixing or affecting the time at which a meeting of members may be held when the meeting is called by the Board of Directors.
- (e) Notice Requirements for Members' Meetings.
- (i) General Notice Requirements. Whenever members are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, a written notice of the meeting shall be given, in accordance with Section 4.7(e)(iii) of these Bylaws, to each member entitled to vote at the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, date and hour of the meeting. For an Assembly and an Election Meeting, the notice shall state the matters that the Board of Directors, at the time the notice is given, intends to present for action by the members. For a special meeting, the notice shall state the general nature of the business to be transacted and shall state that no other business may be transacted. The notice of any meeting at which Directors, Officers, committee chairs or any other position is to be elected shall include the names of all persons who are candidates as of the date that the notice is given, except in those cases where the entirety of the qualified members in good standing of the Corporation will stand as candidates for the positions of Director and Officer at an Election Meeting as set out in Section 4.9(b) of these Bylaws.
 - (ii) Notice of Certain Agenda Items. Approval by the members of any of the following proposals, other than by unanimous approval of those entitled to vote at the meeting, is valid only if the notice or written waiver of notice states the general nature of the proposal or proposals:
 - (a) Removal of a member;
 - (b) Removal of a Director;
 - (c) Removal of an Officer;
 - (d) Filling vacancies on the Board of Directors;
 - (e) Filling vacancies of any committee chair;
 - (f) Amending the Articles of Incorporation;
 - (g) Amending the Bylaws;
 - (h) Amending the Mid-Southern California Area Guidelines for Structure and Procedure; or
 - (i) Electing to wind up and dissolve the Corporation.

If such notice, or written waiver of notice of meeting did not state the general nature of the above proposal(s), then action may only be taken on such proposal(s) upon the unanimous approval of all members present at the meeting who are entitled to vote.

- (iii) Manner of Giving Notice. Notice of any meeting of members shall be in writing and shall be given at least ten (10) but no more than ninety (90) days before the meeting date. The notice shall be given either personally, by first class mail or by certified mail, by electronic mail, or by any other means of written communication, charges prepaid by the Corporation, and shall be addressed to each member entitled to vote as of the Record Date established pursuant to Section 4.8 of these Bylaws, at the address of that member as it appears on the books of the Corporation, or at the address given by the member to the Corporation for purposes of notice. If no address appears on the Corporation's books, and no address has been so given by the member, notice shall be deemed to have been given if either (a) notice is sent to that member by first class mail or facsimile or other written communication to the Corporation's principal office; or (b) written notice is delivered to the District Office locations within Mid-Southern California Area 9 of Alcoholics Anonymous. The failure of any member to maintain his or her current address, either street address, facsimile telephone number, or electronic mail address, with the Corporation shall be deemed a waiver by such member of any right to receive personal delivery of any notice required to be delivered to such member.
- (a) Notice Given By Electronic Transmission. Notice given by electronic transmission by the Corporation shall be valid only if:
- (1) Delivered by (i) facsimile telecommunication or electronic mail when directed to the facsimile number or electronic mail address, respectively, for that recipient on record with the Corporation; (ii) posting on an electronic message board or network that the Corporation has designated for those communications, together with a separate notice to the recipient of the posting, which transmission shall be validly delivered on the later of the posting or delivery of the separate notice of it; or (iii) other means of electronic communication;
 - (2) To a recipient who has provided an unrevoked consent to the use of those means of transmission for communications; and
 - (3) That creates a record that is capable of retention, retrieval, and review, and that may thereafter be rendered into a clearly legible tangible form, such as a printed facsimile transmission receipt or a conformed electronic mail receipt, along with a printed copy of the actual notice sent via electronic mail.

(b) Invalid Electronic Notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing,

(1) An electronic transmission by this Corporation to a member is not authorized unless, in addition to satisfying the requirements of the Section, the transmission satisfies the requirements applicable to consumer consent to electronic record as set forth in the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (15 USC §7001(c)(1)).

(2) Notice shall not be given by electronic transmission by the Corporation after either of the following: (i) the Corporation is unable to deliver two consecutive notices to the member by that means or (ii) the inability so to deliver the notices to the member becomes known to the Secretary, the Registrar, or any other person responsible for the giving of the notice.

(iv) Affidavit of Mailing Notice. An affidavit of the mailing of any notice of any members' meeting, or of the giving of such notice by any other means, including posting of notice at District Office facilities, may be executed by the Secretary or Registrar of the Corporation, and, if so executed, shall be filed and maintained in the minute book of the Corporation.

(f) Quorum.

(i) Ten percent (10%) of the Corporation's members eligible to vote as of the relevant Record Date (as set forth in Section 4.8 of these Bylaws), shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of members. If, however, the attendance at any Assembly or Election meeting is less than one third (1/3) of the total voting power of the membership as of the relevant Record Date, the members may vote only on matters as to which notice of their general nature was given under Section 4.7(e) of these Bylaws.

(ii) Loss of Quorum. Except as otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, the eligible voting members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment, even if enough members initially present at the meeting have withdrawn to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the members required to constitute a quorum.

(g) Adjournment and Notice of Adjourned Meetings. A quorum of eligible voting members, as defined in Section 4.7(f) of these Bylaws, is not required to take a valid vote to adjourn any meeting of the members. Any members' meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of eligible voting members present at the meeting. No meeting may be adjourned for more than forty-five (45) days. When a members' meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment took place. If after adjournment a new Record Date is fixed for notice or voting under the provisions of Section 4.8 of these Bylaws, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each member who, on the new Record Date fixed for notice of the new time for holding of the adjourned meeting, is entitled to vote at such meeting. At the re-holding of the adjourned meeting, the corporation may transact any business that might have been transacted at the original meeting previously adjourned.

(h) Voting.

- (i) Eligibility to Vote. Subject to the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, members who are in good standing on the relevant Record Date, as determined under Section 4.8 of these Bylaws, shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of members.
- (ii) Manner of Casting Votes. Voting by eligible voting members present at any meeting of members may be by voice or by ballot except as to the following matters:
 - (1) The election of the Corporation's Directors and Officers shall be by written ballot in the manner specified in these Bylaws;
 - (2) Where a demand for vote by written ballot is made, before the voting begins, by any five (5) eligible voting members present at a meeting, such vote shall be conducted by written ballot.
- (iii) Number of Votes. Each member entitled to vote shall be entitled to cast one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members, even where such member may hold a position in more than one voting class of members. Cumulative voting shall not be permitted.
- (iv) Approval Required In Voting. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting members present at the meeting, and entitled to vote and voting on any matter, shall be deemed the act of the members unless the vote of a greater number is required by the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law and as to the following matters:
 - (1) Matters Determined by Substantial Unanimity. Long term policy decisions effecting the Corporation, entering into contractual obligations on behalf of the Corporation where the Corporation's obligation is reasonably expected to exceed $500.00, and approval of the annual budget of the Corporation shall require approval of two-thirds of the members present at the meeting at which the vote is taken, provided that there is a quorum present at the meeting. The members may, at any meeting at which a quorum is present, determine by majority vote of the members present at the meeting that any other matter presented for vote of the members, that normally would require only a majority vote for approval, be determined by Substantial Unanimity.

- (2) Third Legacy Procedure. Directors and Officers of the Corporation shall be elected utilizing the Third Legacy Procedure of Alcoholics Anonymous. Each person nominated for a specific Officer position provided for in Section 7.1 of these Bylaws is also nominated to simultaneously serve as a Director. As to each position to be filled, the first candidate to receive, by written ballot, two-thirds of the votes of the members present at the meeting shall be elected. The voting procedure is conducted as follows:
- (i) If a candidate receives such a two-thirds vote on the first written balloting, that candidate is elected. If no candidate receives such two-thirds vote on the first written balloting, a second written balloting is conducted as to all candidates;
 - (ii) If a candidate receives such a two-thirds vote on the second written balloting, that candidate is elected. If no candidate receives such two-thirds vote on the second written balloting, a third written balloting is conducted;
 - (iii) The third written balloting shall contain only the names of the two candidates who received the most votes on the second balloting. If there is a second place tie, the tied candidates shall remain on the third written ballot. Candidates with less than one-fifth (1/5) of the total votes cast are withdrawn. If a candidate on the third written ballot receives the required two-thirds vote, that candidate is elected. If no candidate receives such two-thirds vote on the third written balloting, a fourth written balloting is conducted;
 - (iv) The fourth written balloting shall contain only the names of the two candidates who received the most votes on the third balloting. If there is a second place tie, the tied candidates shall remain on the fourth written ballot. Candidates with less than one-third (1/3) of the total votes cast are withdrawn. If a candidate on the fourth written ballot receives the required two-thirds vote, that candidate is elected. If no candidate receives such two-thirds vote on the fourth written balloting, the Chair will request a motion, and second, to proceed with a fifth written balloting. If, by majority vote of the members present at the meeting, the motion for a fifth ballot fails, the election will “go to the Hat.” If, by majority vote of the members present at the meeting, the motion for a fifth ballot passes, a fifth written balloting is conducted;

(v) If there is a fifth written balloting, it shall contain only the names of the two candidates who received the most votes on the fourth balloting. If there is a second place tie, the tied candidates shall remain on the fifth written ballot. If there were more than two candidates on the fourth ballot, the candidate with the smallest total votes received is withdrawn. If a candidate on the fifth written ballot receives the required two-thirds vote, that candidate is elected. If no candidate receives such two-thirds vote on the fifth written balloting, the election will “go to the Hat;”

(vi) Going to the Hat. The top two candidates at the time of the determination to “go to the Hat” shall remain eligible for election. In cases of first place ties, all those tied remain eligible. In case of no first place ties, the top candidates and tied second place candidates remain eligible. The names of the eligible candidates are placed in to a “hat,” and the first name drawn from the “hat” by the Chair is elected.

(i) Waiver of Notice or Consent By Attendance. An eligible voting member’s attendance at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of and presence at the meeting unless the member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required to be included in the notice of the meeting but not so included, if that objection is expressly made at the meeting.

4.8 Record Date For Notice And Actions.

(a) Record Date Determined By Board. The Board of Directors may fix a record date in advance for the purpose of establishing the members entitled to receive notice of any meeting, entitled to vote at any meeting, or entitled to exercise any rights in any lawful action. - (c) Member of Record Defined. For purposes of all provisions within Section 4.8 of these Bylaws except for Section 4.8(b)(ii), a person in good standing holding a voting membership at the close of business on the applicable Record Date shall be a member of record.  - (i) Membership Records. Unless the Corporation provides a reasonable alternative as provided below, any voting member in good standing may do either or both of the following for a purpose reasonably related to the voting member's interest as a voting member:
 - (1) Inspect and copy the records containing the members' names, addresses and voting rights during usual business hours on five days' prior written demand delivered to the Corporation, which demand must state the purpose for which the inspection rights are requested; or
 - (2) Obtain from the Secretary of the Corporation, on a written demand and tender of a reasonable charge, a list of names, addresses and voting rights of members who are entitled to vote as of the most recent Record Date for which that list has been compiled, or as of the date, after the date of demand, specified by the member. The demand shall state the purpose for which the list is requested. The Secretary shall make this list available to the member on or before the later of ten (10) days after the demand is received or the date specified in the demand as the date as of which the list is to be compiled.

The Corporation may, within ten (10) business days after receiving a demand under this Section, make a written offer of an alternative method of reasonable and timely achievement of the proper purpose specified in the demand without providing access to or a copy of the membership list. Any rejection of this offer must be in writing and must state the reasons the proposed alternative does not meet the proper purpose of the demand.

If the Board of Directors reasonably believes that the information will be used for a purpose other than one reasonably related to a person's interest as a voting member, or if it provides a reasonable alternative under this Section that was rejected by the member, it may deny the member access to the membership list.

- (ii) Accounting Records and Minutes. On written demand to the Corporation, any voting member in good standing may inspect, copy, and make extracts of the accounting books and records and the minutes of the proceedings of the members, the Board of Directors, and/or committees of the Corporation at any reasonable time for a purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a voting member.  - (iii) Maintenance and Inspection of Articles and Bylaws. The Corporation shall keep at its principal office the original or a copy of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, as amended to the current date, of the Corporation which shall be open to inspection and copying by voting members in good standing at all reasonable times during office hours. A reasonable charge may be made to the member for the copying of such requested records.

If a Director's resignation is effective at a later time, the Board of Directors may appoint a successor, as permitted by these Bylaws, to take office as of the date when the resignation becomes effective. Except upon notice to the California Attorney General, no Director may resign if the Corporation would be left without a duly elected Director or Directors in charge of its affairs.

A Director shall automatically be removed from the Board, for cause, without the need of a vote of the members, for any of the following reasons:
 - (i) The Director has failed to maintain, while serving his or her elected term, any of the qualification requirements established for Directors in these Bylaws; or
 - (ii) The Director has failed to attend three (3) consecutive meetings at which Director attendance is required without good cause, unless: (a) the Director requests a leave of absence for a limited time and the leave of absence is approved by the Board of Directors at a duly authorized meeting; or (b) the Director suffers from an illness or disability that prevents him or her from attending meetings and the Board of Directors, by resolution, waives the automatic removal procedure of this subsection. Director attendance is required at all Assembly Meetings, Election Meetings and Special Meetings of members, all Area Service Committee Meetings, and all meetings of the Board of Directors.

Any vacancy caused by the removal of a Director by vote of the members shall be filled by vote of the qualified voting members in good standing at a duly authorized meeting conducted in accordance with these Bylaws. - 5.4 Restriction on Interested Persons as Directors. No more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving on the Board of Directors may be “interested persons.” An interested person is: (a) any person compensated by the Corporation for services rendered to the Corporation within the previous 12 months, whether as a full-time or part-time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a Director as Director; (b) any person who is engaged in a transaction in which the Corporation is a party and in which that person has a material financial interest, or who has, within the previous 12 months, engaged in a transaction in which the Corporation is a party and in which that person has a material financial interest; and (3) any spouse, parent, brother, sister, ancestor, descendent, in-law or co-habitant of such person described in subsections (a) and (b). However, Directors shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the Corporation for any reasonable costs and expenses incurred by such Directors in conducting the affairs of the Corporation.
- 5.6 Employment Contracts. Notwithstanding any general grant of authority to the Board of Directors in the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporations Law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the Board of Directors shall not have the authority to enter into any employment contract or contracts with any person which contract purports to create an employer/employee relationship between the Corporation and such person.
- 5.7 Term of Office of Directors. All Directors elected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office for a period of two (2) years and until such time as their successors are elected. Such term of office shall commence on January 1 of the even-numbered year immediately following the October Election Meeting at which said Directors were elected by the members. Any Director that is elected or appointed pursuant to these Bylaws to replace a Director that for any reason does not complete his or her term of office shall serve for the remainder of the term of office of the Director being replaced. This Section does not apply to a transaction that is part of an educational or charitable program of this Corporation if it (a) is approved or authorized by the Corporation in good faith and without unjustified favoritism; and (b) results in a benefit to one or more Directors or their families simply because they are in the class of persons intended to be benefitted by the educational or charitable program of this Corporation.
